

Distinctive Ring

Allows you to have two directory numbers on a single line. This service is great for a business that needs to receive the occasional fax or a home with active teenagers because each number has its own distinctive ring. You have the luxury of two separate numbers without the expense of two lines. The different ringing patterns will let you or your fax machine know which number was dialed.